

HORIZON-CL2-2022-DEMOCRACY-01-04: Education for democracy

EXPERTISE OFFER — WP LEAD, TASK LEAD, PARTNER

Researcher — Jekatyerina Dunajeva, PhD

Jekatyerina Dunajeva is a Research Fellow at the Institute for Political Science. She is the author of the book "Constructing Identities over Time" (CEU Press, 2021). Her research has been published in multiple book chapters and peer-reviewed journals, exploring topics such as Roma identity, discrimination, youth politics, nationalism, state- and nation-building, democratization, illiberalism, education policy, and contemporary Russian and Hungarian politics. Dr Dunajeva's recent research focus revolves around various aspects of multiculturalism, social equality and education. In her work, Dr Dunajeva applies qualitative research methods, and has extensive experience with fieldwork, interviewing and participant observation. She is also skilled in developing teaching materials, trainings and workshops.

More information: researcher profile.

Expertise offer for the call

- ◆ Developing case studies: Hungarian or Russian speaking regions/groups; topics related to education, youth and multiculturalism in Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union
- ◆ Analytical tasks and evaluations of topics of expertise (multiculturalism, education, minorities, youth, democratization, equality and discrimination, belonging and exclusion, nationalism)
- ◆ Research methods: qualitative research (literature review, policy review), surveys, interviews, focus groups, participant observation, fieldwork, desk research)

Relevant research experience, projects & publications

- SensiClass Erasmus+ Project (KA203-C646E630) – researcher and project coordinator (Central European University), 2020 – 2022
- SocialWorlds Erasmus+ Project (KA226-6E5C00E9) – researcher and project coordinator (Public Policy and Management Institute), 2021 –2023
- PioneerED Horizon2020 Project – researcher (Public Policy and Management Institute), 2021 – 2024
- Dunajeva Jekatyerina, Constructing Identities over Time. "Bad Gypsies" and "Good Roma" in Russia and Hungary. Budapest: CEU Press, 2021.
- Rymarenko, Margaryta and Jekatyerina Dunajeva, "Faculty approaches to diversity in Eastern European education: Implications for teaching sensitive topics." Society Register 6(2), 2022
- Dunajeva, Jekatyerina: "Teaching about Roma in contemporary Hungary" in Katarzyna Górak-Sosnowska and Urszula Markowska-Manista (eds.) Teaching about "Invisible Others". The Central and East European Perspective (Springer, 2022)

Contact: Jekatyerina Dunajeva, PhD, Research Fellow, Institute for Political Studies

Email: Jekatyerina.Dunajeva@tk.hu

Centre for Social Sciences (CSS) Budapest

The Centre for Social Sciences \(CSS\) Budapest is the flagship research institute of social sciences in Hungary. It conducts disciplinary and interdisciplinary research in the areas of

- sociology
- political science
- computational social science
- network science
- minority studies and
- legal studies

using the latest scientific methods and high quality research data. CSS Budapest is dedicated to building collaborative, trans-disciplinary research networks both within Hungary and internationally.

