

HORIZON-CL2-2022-TRANSFORMATIONS-01-08: Strengthening racial, ethnic and religious equality

EXPERTISE OFFER — TASK LEAD, PARTNER

Researcher — Dr Nándor Bárdi

Dr Nándor Bárdi is a senior research fellow and Head of Department of Etnopolitics and Minority History at the Institute for Minority Studies at the Centre for Social Sciences with experience in the history of minorities (especially the Hungarian minority in Romania) and kin-state problems (mainly in the last hundred years of Hungarian governments). Bárdi is particularly interested in what and who operates minority communities and institutions. What are the characteristics of building the minority society and how does nationbuilding differ from state- or society building? What does the notion of homelimes, homeland and nationhood mean and how does that change?

More information: research profile

Expertise offer for the call

- history of the Hungarian minority in Romania between the two world wars
- comparative history of Hungarian minorities
- history of Hungarian minority policy
- history of Hungarian minority research, including literature review and source analysis
- kin-state policy of Budapest governments (20th-21st century)

Relevant research experience, projects & publications

- Construction of the Székely self-concept in the 19th and 20th centuries, National Research, Development and Innovation Funding NKFI128848, 2018-2022.
- Minority Hungarian communities in the 20th-21st centuries, Bethlen Gábor Fund, 2019-2020.
- The Policy of Budapest Governments towards Hungarian Communities Abroad, 2019-2021.
- Bárdi Nándor, Kiss, Tamás: Minority Political Agency in Historical Perspective: Periodization and Key Problems. In: Kiss, Tamás; Székely, István; Toro, Tibor; Bárdi, Nándor; Horváth, István (eds.): Unequal Accommodation of Minority Rights: Hungarians in Transylvania. London: Palgrave, 2018. pp. 37-70.
- Minority Policy Strategies of the Hungarians of Romania between the Two World Wars In: Hunyadi, Attila (ed.): State and Minority in Transylvania, 1918-1989: Studies on the History of the Hungarian Community. New York : Columbia University Press, 2013. pp. 3-26.

Centre for Social Sciences (CSS) Budapest

The Centre for Social Sciences \(CSS\) Budapest is the flagship research institute of social sciences in Hungary. It conducts disciplinary and interdisciplinary research in the areas of

- sociology
- political science
- computational social science
- network science
- minority studies and
- legal studies

using the latest scientific methods and high quality research data. CSS Budapest is dedicated to building collaborative, trans-disciplinary research networks both within Hungary and internationally.

